

Multicultural Expo

Alachua Learning Center puts an emphasis on the multicultural experience in education. One of the ways we achieve this is through our annual Multicultural Expo. The Middle School students prepare presentations based on their social studies courses on world history and geography, integrating what they have learned about art, culture, traditions, economy, history and food.